

Regions Tradition | Day 3

Steve Alker

You are back in it? Was that always the plan?

It feels good. There was not much wind today, I knew Steve (Stricker) was going to come out pretty hot and make some birdies. It was just one of those rounds I followed the wave, picked up a birdie and then from there I played the par-5s nice. It was solid especially after my finish yesterday, it was a bit rough with a couple of 3-putts. It's just nice to be in contention again.

Do you like this golf course?

I do. As soon as I got here I was like this is cool. Winding through the creeks, you have to hit it in the fairway, the greens have a bit to them. I like it a lot.

Do you have a number in mind for tomorrow morning?

No, I don't tend to do that to be honest. I don't tend to go on numbers. I just try to focus on maybe being a bit more aggressive on certain holes that I haven't been. After nine I might sneak a peak at the leaderboard and see how we're doing and go from there.
